Dedication

We, The Annual Staff of Ridgeville High School, dedicate this book to Miss Elizabeth Wilcox, our beloved superintendent and friend. Her untiring efforts towards the betterment of our school are known throughout school and community. Her willingness to help and advise each student will long be remembered by all.

THE

Christocrat

It would require many times the space occupied by this volume to accurately portray a year of high school life in its many phases. We have tried, therefore, to select for this Annual such scenes as will call to mind "remembrance of things past," and the many happy occasions and incidents of the school year.

Class History

In September 1944 a group of forty-seven fearful, frolicking, frisky freshmen hopped aboard the old model T ford which was to chug along on a four year educational journey. In our first year we selected Bob Obrin as our driver and leader. To assist in case he had difficulties, we chose Doreen Line, vice-president; Mary Haas, secretary; Evelyn Stroud, treasurer; Joyce Sayers, student council; Dale Schroeder and Margery Irons, social chairmen. Our biggest event of the year was the Freshman Party which we all managed to survive. The initiations, which included everything from rolling moth balls to washing feet, made us full-fledged members of Ridgeville High School. To our surprise, our old ford chugged us through a very successful year. On the way, however, we lost Zane Brushaber to the Marines, and Marie Weber, Ray Zacharias, Delbert Witt, Luther Schwinn, Don Standen, and Bob Silvers.

After filling our ford with gas and checking its tires, we all climbed aboard in the fall of '45 with a number of additional passengers, namely; Eugene Berry, Janet Roosevelt, Maureen Brown, Ethel Kerley, Mona Lou Warner, Carol Leadenham, Bob Koenig, Alberta Marvin, Dale Wakefield and Lucille Hamley. With Pete Pszenitzki as our driver and John Kathe, vice-president; Margery Irons, secretary; Florence Kodysh, treasurer; Ben Janas, student council; Evelyn Stroud and Louis Finegan, social chairmen, we finished this year with a bang. Checking our list, we found we had lost Ethel Kerley and Eugene Berry.

In September 1946 we again dusted out our ford and boarded it to continue our journey. As driver, we selected Jack Kathe, president; Bob Grega, vice-president, Margaret Krueger, secretary; Henry Dreger, treasurer; Devona Myers, student council; Evelyn Stroud and Ben Janas, social chairmen. Immediately we started thinking of ways to earn money to entertain the seniors at our annual Prom. Naturally our only source of income was selling magazines, but with our well-known gift of salesmanship, we managed to make our quota. Another important event of the year was selecting and receiving our class rings. Paul Bartok, Julianne Gutschmidt and Fred Powell joined us, while Don Bowman, Dale Schroeder, Jean Hahn, Pat Lengel, Carol Leadenham, Bob Koenig, Joyce Sayers, Rose Kazimir, Dale Wakefield and Jim Spirek left us.

Happy but a little regretful we came to the last curve of our journey. For our final ride we chose Henry Dreger, president; Florence Kodysh, vice-president; Evelyn Stroud, secretary; Bob Obrin, treasurer; Devona Myers, student council; Mona Lou Warner and Pete Pszenitzki, social chairmen.

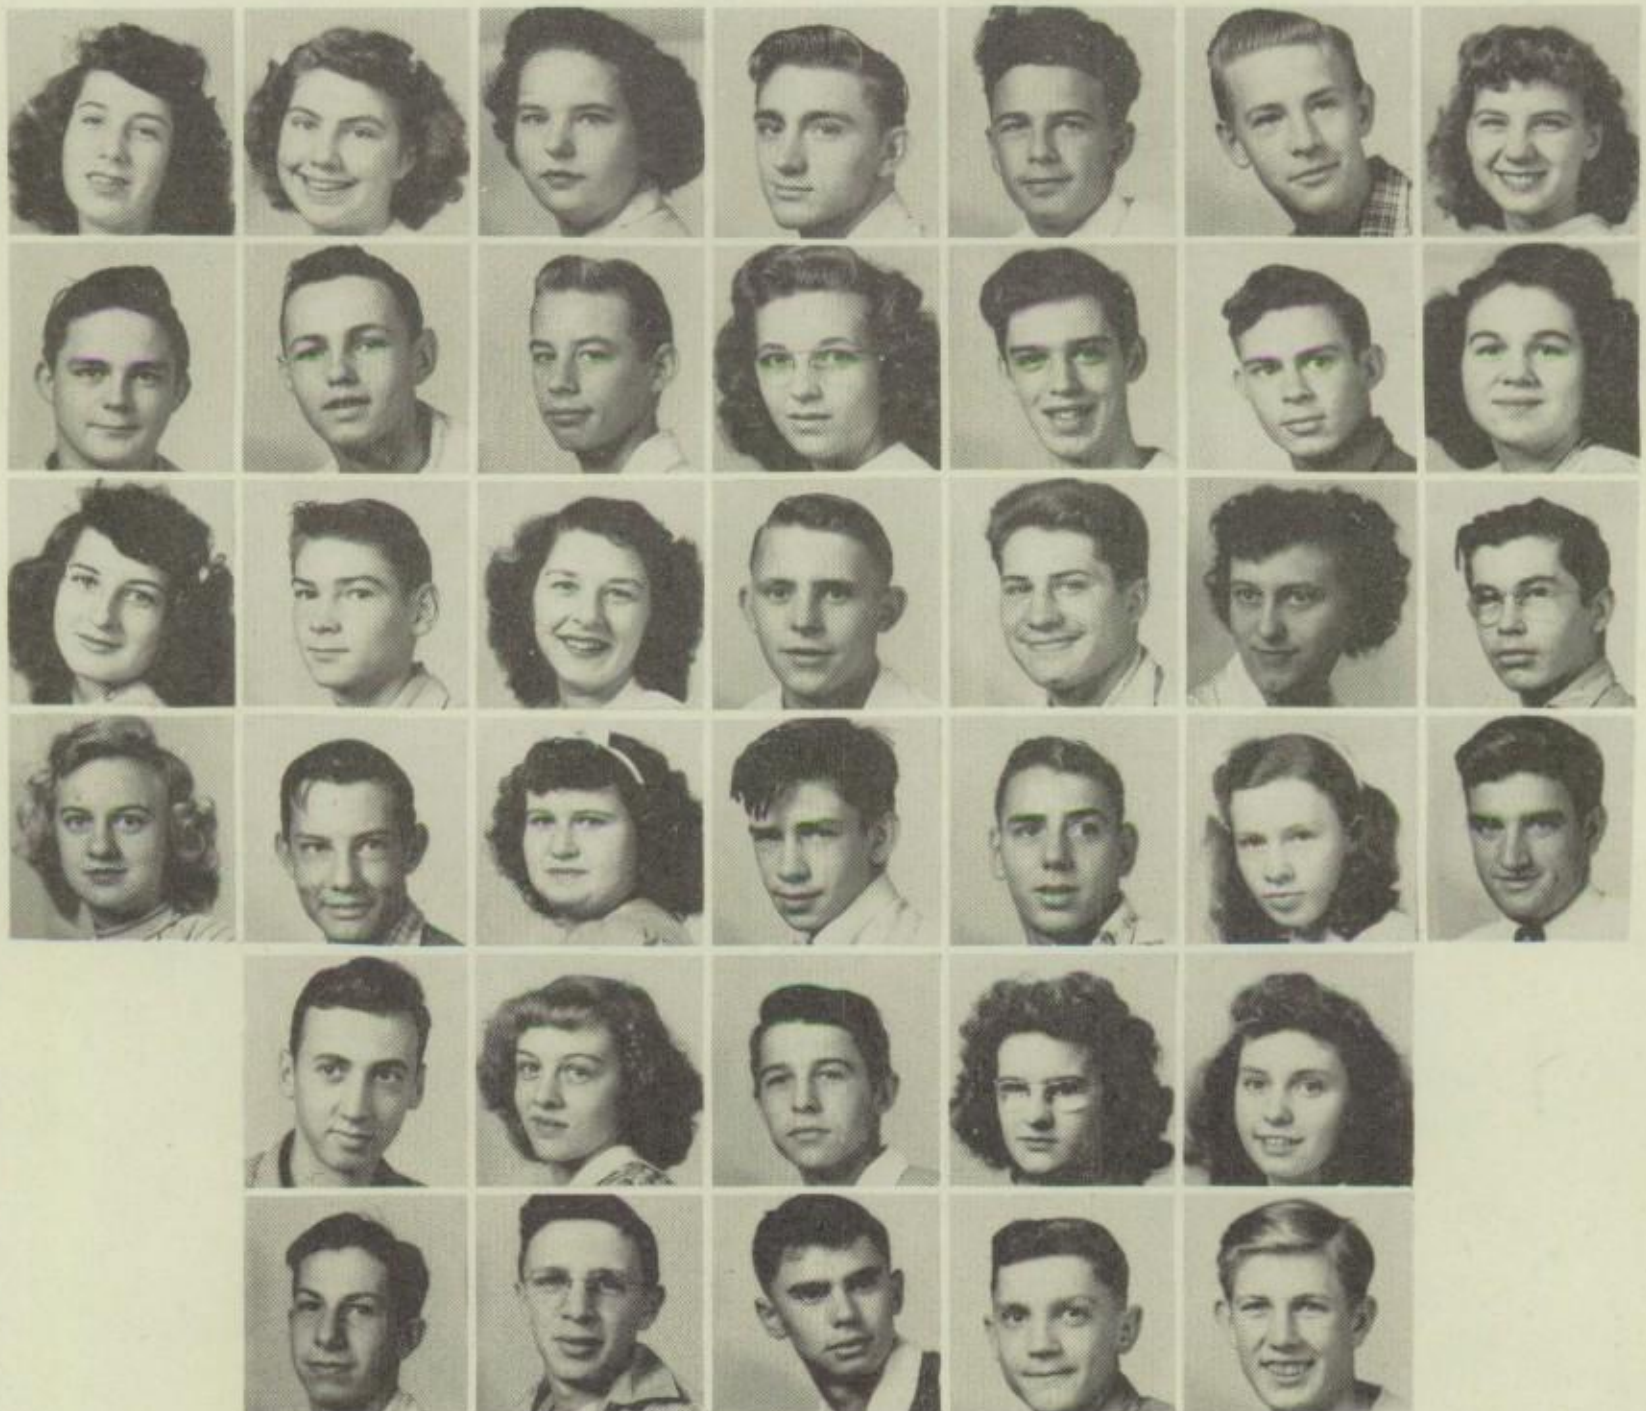

Although we lost one member of our class, Natalie Gusky, we gained a member when Zane Brushaber came back from the Marines to finish his high school education.

The first social event of the year was the Freshman Party. Since the problem of rings was settled the previous year, the next important event was taking class pictures. This was accomplished with the help of Rudy Moc.

Distinction Day brought many problems and arguments, but colors, motto, song, and flower were finally chosen.

Finally after four years, came the night we had been striving for, Commencement. Wearing our caps and gowns we marched across the familiar gymnasium floor to the stage. Our school days had ended at last, and we were ready for our careers of tomorrow. Although the class of '48 will travel far, happy memories of Ridgeville High will always linger in our hearts.

Varsity

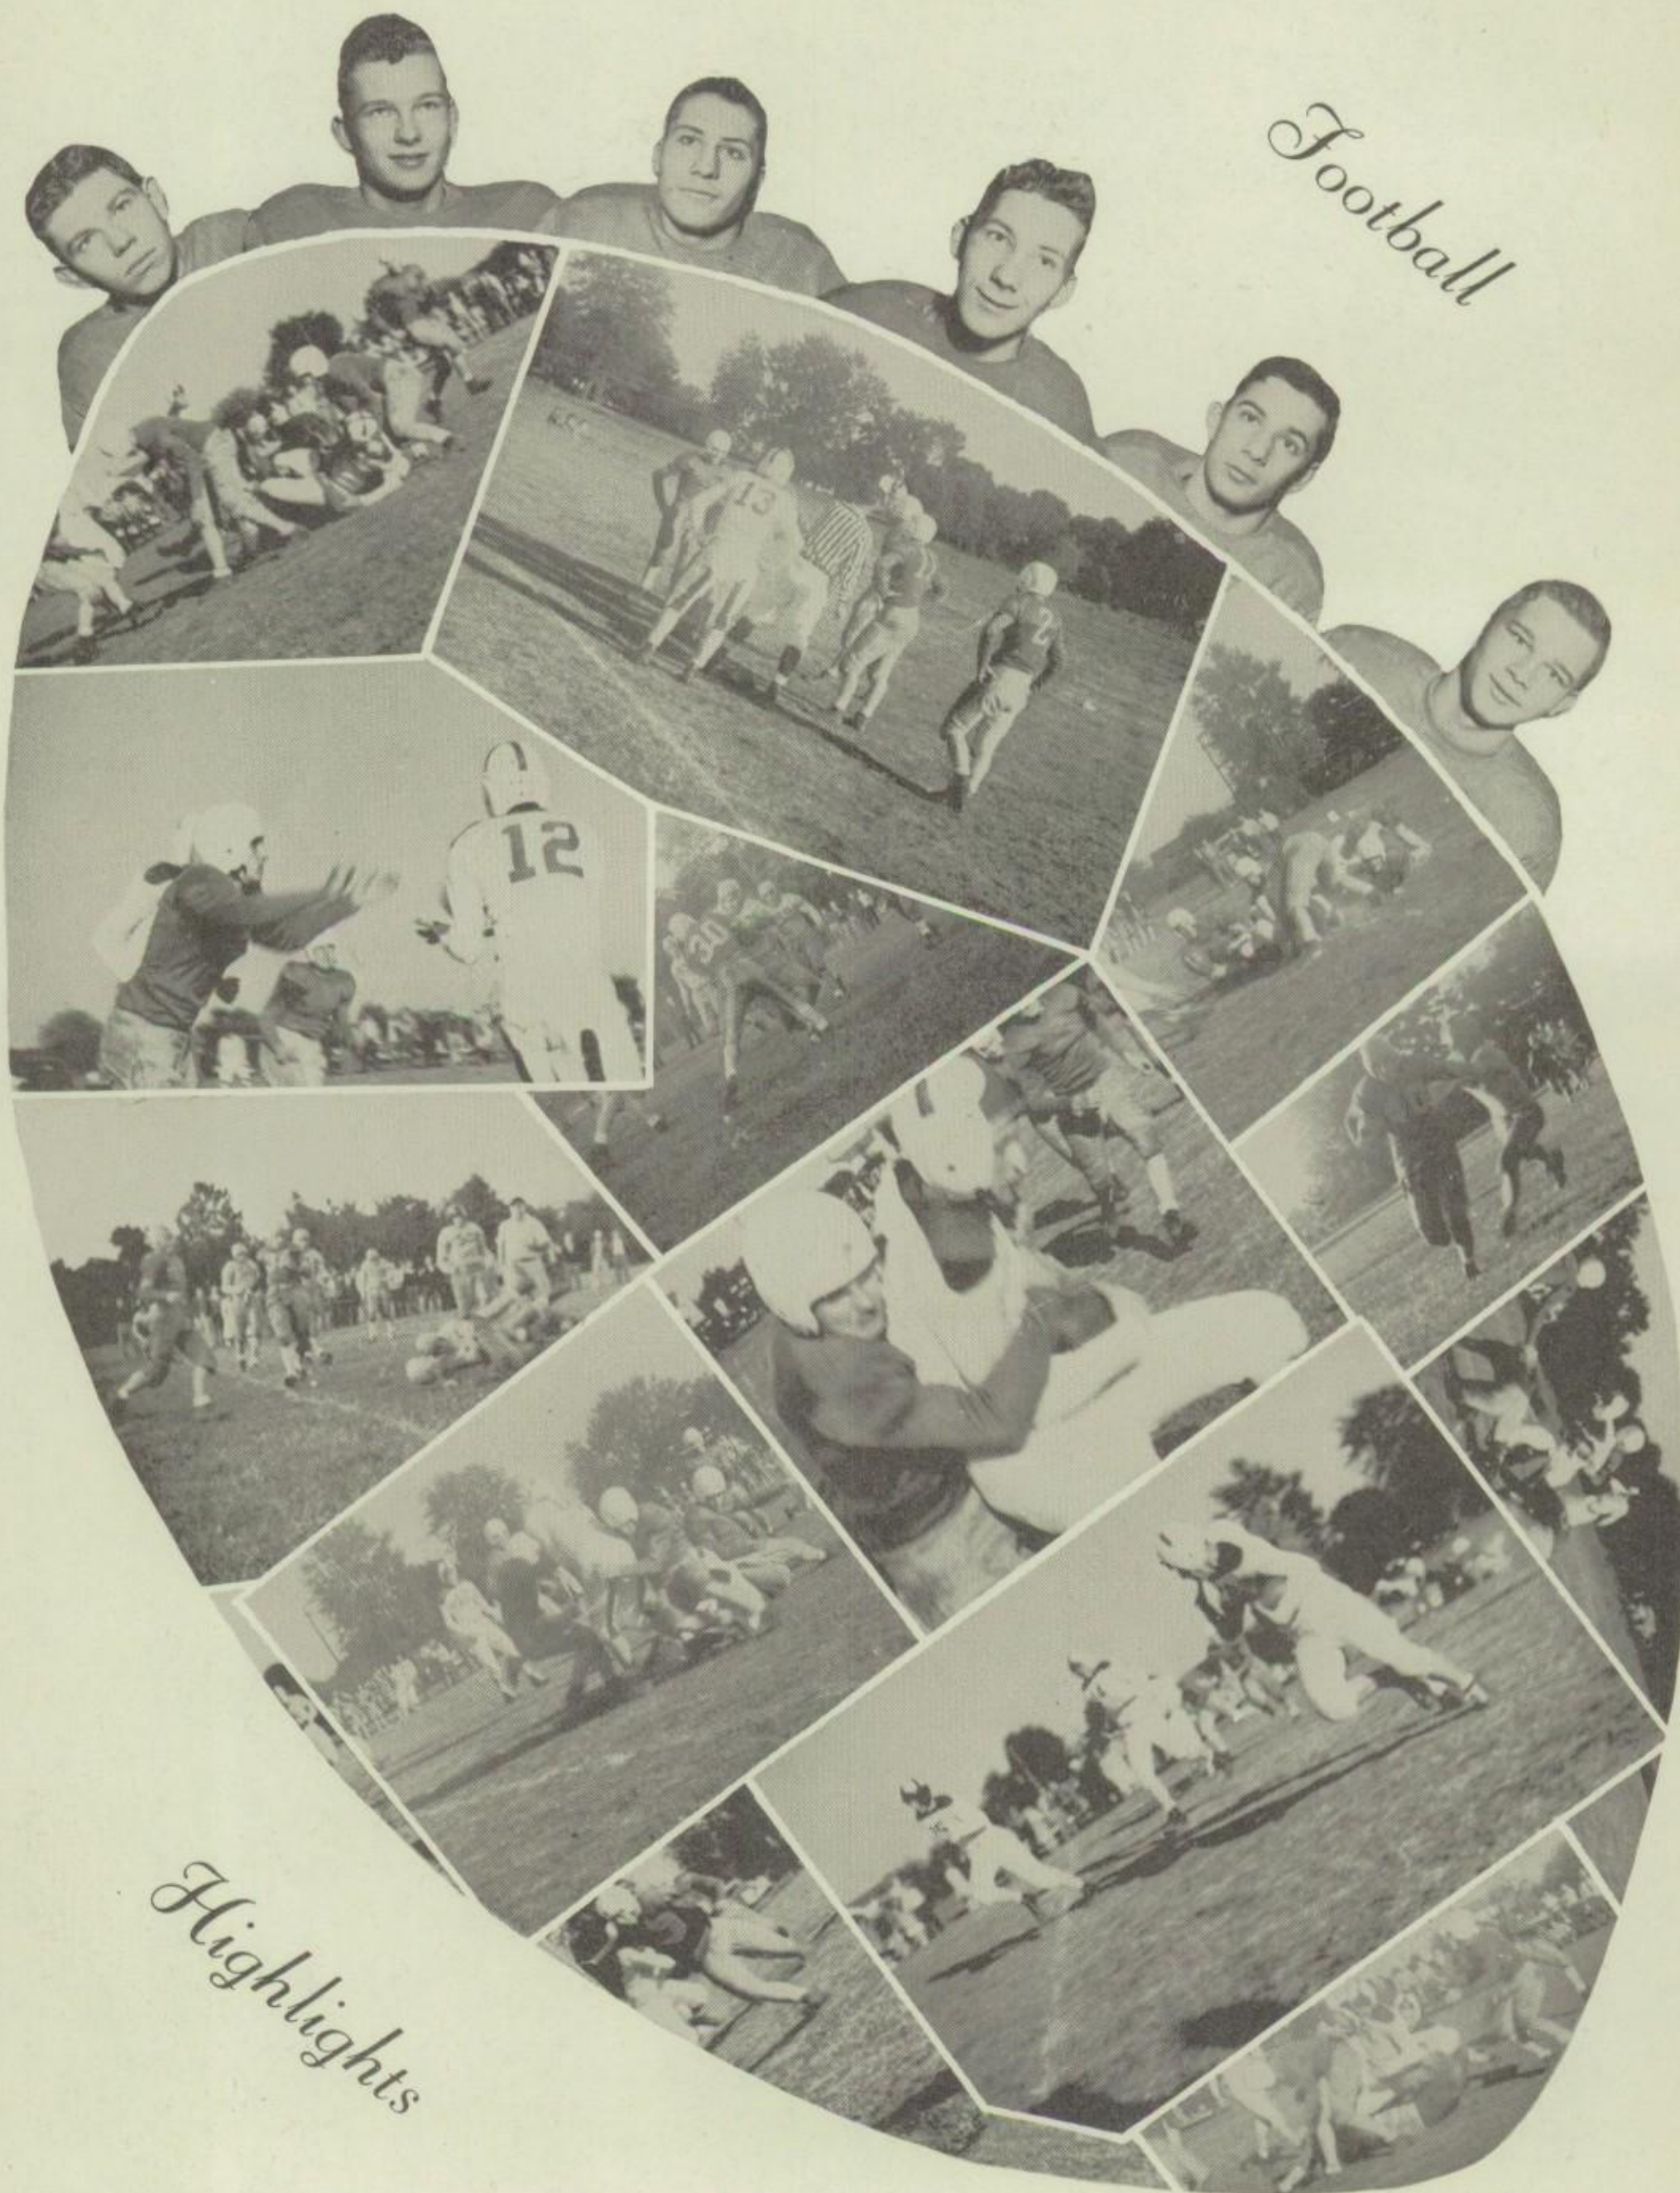

Ridgeville's football team has long been established as one of the county's most well-known sixman teams. Mr. Sweet, the coach, and Pete Pszenitski, the manager, work hard to get the team in good shape for the football season.

Reserves

The reserve football team shows great promise for next year. Mr. Merkle is a new coach this year and he has done a good job in preparing the reserves for varsity work.

Football

Varsity

The Varsity Team finished this year's basketball season in third place in the Northwestern Class B League. Dyer Sweet is the well known Varsity coach.

Organizations

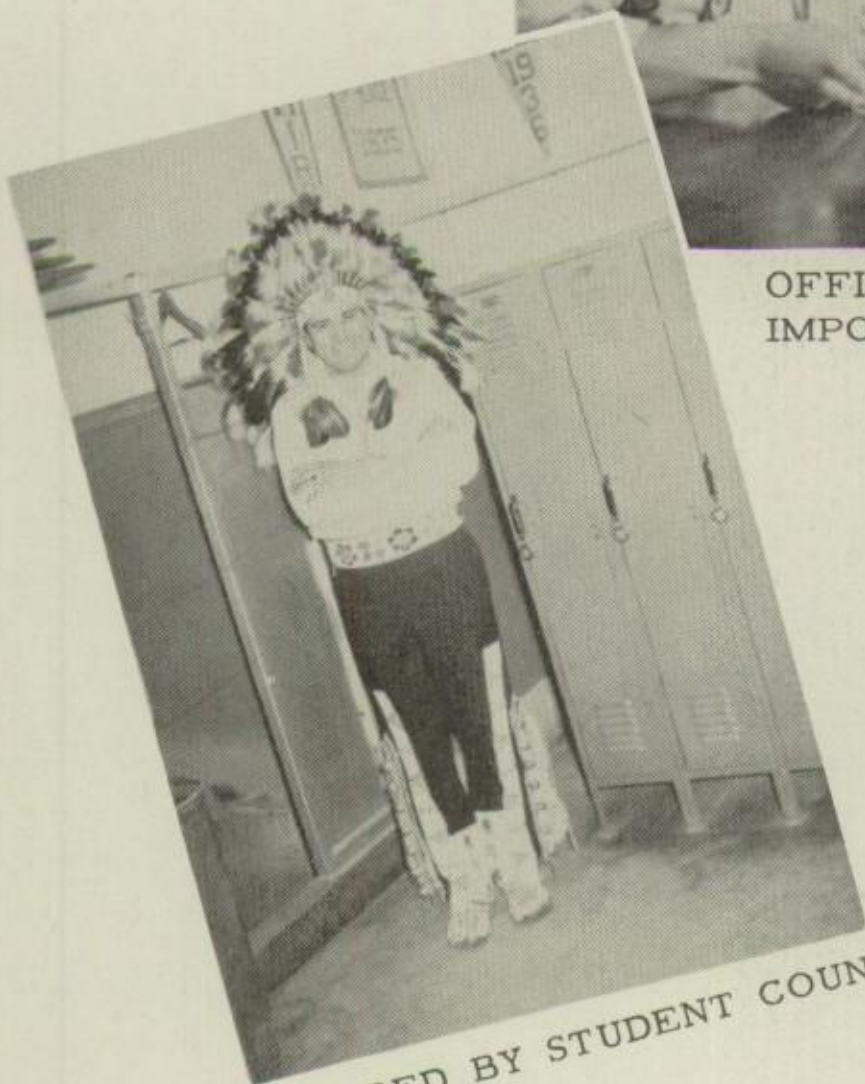

Student Council

The student council is the most important of all the student organizations. The representatives are chosen by the homerooms and the organizations; the president is chosen by the student body at large. This group, advised by Miss Wilcox, sponsors many assemblies, collects money on CARE, sponsors the Snack Bar, and also the school dances.

Staff

The staff of Ridgeville High School collects the news for the school paper, the Aristocrat. These reporters have the job of helping to put out the paper every month. Composed of high school students, the reporters collect the grade school news also.

Production Crew

The production crew is one of the hardest working groups of students in the school. These girls have the task of typing and mimeographing the school paper. It takes about a week of fast work for these girls to publish four hundred copies of the Aristocrat.

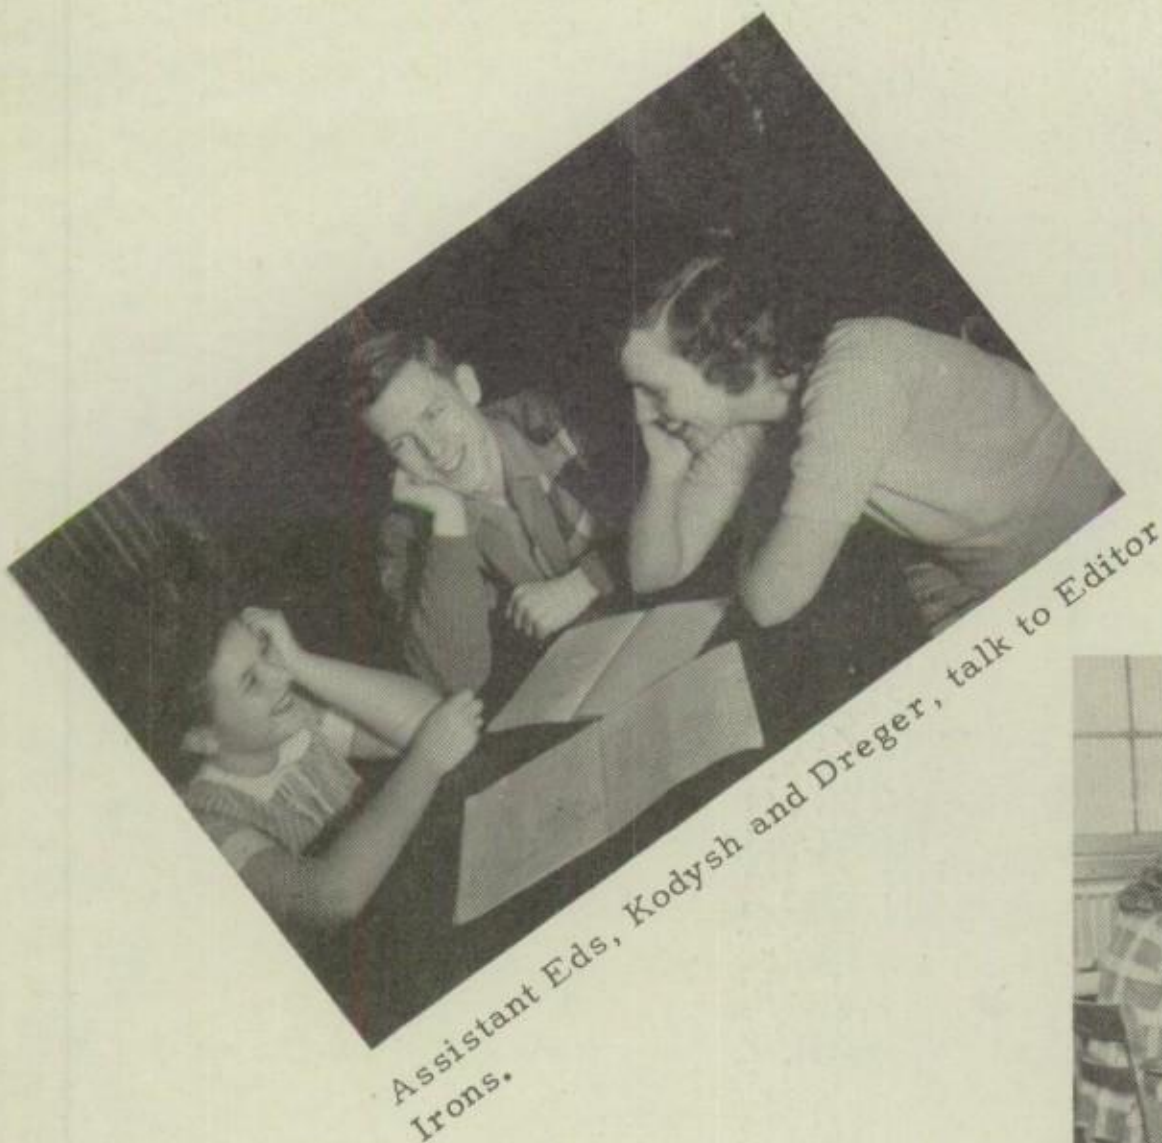

Each of these seniors did his part in getting the Annual ready for publication. Jean, LaVerne and Janet typed the copy; Mona Lou was the financial manager, while Lola was the circulation manager; Mary helped with the senior panels and Paul did the art work.

Annual Staff

The Annual Staff had the job of putting out the 1948 yearbook, The Aristocrat. Each member of the staff had a particular job to do, such as lay-outs, typing, photographing, or the gathering of information. Miss Kalter and Mr. Merkle were sponsors of this group.

Assistant Eds, Kodysh and Dreger, talk to Editor Irons.

Band

The Ridgeville High School Band, directed by Mr. Kolinski, participates in many activities. The band meets every Monday morning to rehearse. It works very hard at these times, since Mr. Kolinski rules with an iron hand. It gives programs for many occasions, such as P. T. A. meetings and the Spring Festival. Every year, the band marches in the Memorial Day Parade and this year colored movies were taken of it.

Bob Obrin, Gail Hadaway, Marilyn Dec-hant, and Danny Eckenfels make a trombone quartet.

Lois Scheidler, Harold Brinkley and
Marie Dudik pose with their clarinets.

Girls Glee Club

The girls glee club is composed of groups of ensembles who meet on fourth periods. Directed by Miss Ford, these groups study music in preparation for presenting numbers at the Spring Music Festival, assembly programs, and the Clearview Music Contest.

Orchestra

The orchestra, directed by Miss Loomis, received a rating of excellent at the Clearview Music Contest this year. This group meets every week to practice classic and semi-classic music.

Choral Group

The choral group, directed by Miss Ford, is composed of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. This group meets every other Wednesday in the music room to prepare three part numbers for the Music Festival and for other occasions.

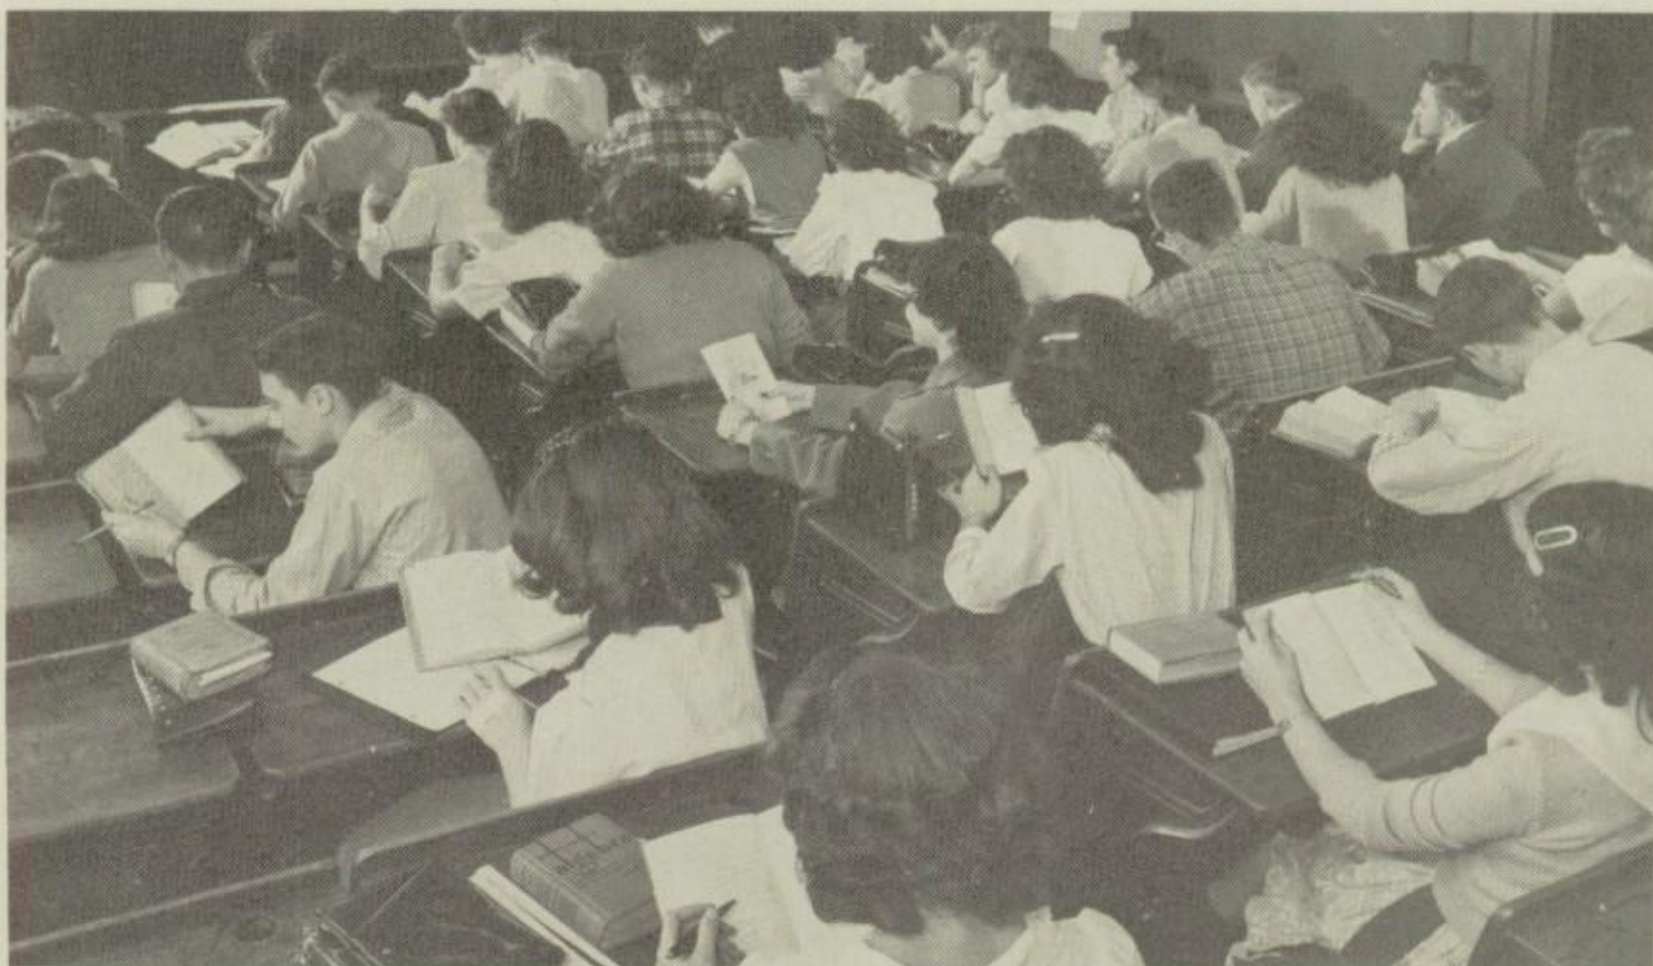

Mixed Ensemble

The mixed ensemble, led by Miss Ford, is composed of upper classmen who are experienced in presenting concert numbers. This small group has sung for P. T. A. meetings, assembly programs, Christmas caroling, and the Music Festival.
